DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-9 in the reply filed on 3/19/07 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that:

"The Examiner's Requirement has recognized the claim groups do not define independent inventions because it has not characterized them as being independent. Moreover, the Examiner's Requirement has not even attempted to explain why the claims are considered to be directed to independent inventions. Consequently, the Examiner's Requirement is deficient on its face because it has not explained why the four claim groups are considered to define independent subject matter. Accordingly, the Requirement should be withdrawn."

This is not found persuasive because the Examiner is not required to explain why the claims are considered to be independent. Restriction is a question of patentable distinction among a set of claims and not based on the dependency of a claim. Two independent claims, inventions as referred by applicant, can be unpatentably distinct.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The phrase "the glass" lacks antecedent basis. The claim provides for a glass component but not antecedent basis for a glass.

Art Unit: 1731

Claim 3 will be read as a glass component selected from the group consisting of MgO, alumina, and silica.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Chatterjee et al (US 5,683,481). Chatterjee discloses an alumina ceramic article derived from the doping of a ceramic substrate. As detailed in Col. 3, lines 20ff, a ceramic oxide is made from alumina and zirconium oxide. The ceramic oxide is then doped with, inter alia, MgO through a sintering step. As further detailed in Col. 8, lines 25ff, the sintering step takes place at a temperature of from about 1400°C to about 1600°C at a time range of 1 hour to 3 hours.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
